

By Bob W. Brown

Alan Naumann generally collects about 30 photographs of the deceased, then sets them to music in a presentation that runs about seven minutes. He sometimes restores old or damaged photos before adding them to the DVD or tape.